

Case Study: Citrus Grower, Processor and Packer

Rethink

2nd largest citrus producer, bottler, packing house, and food service enterprise in Florida, struggled without liquidity due to operational issues forcing a Chapter 11 filing.

React

As Chief Restructuring Officer, Aurora assumed key C-suite positions to continue operations in bankruptcy, develop strategic alternatives, stabilize operations and restore liquidity. Aurora managed the bankruptcy process as well as customer and creditor relations.

Results

Aurora led the company through a difficult business transition and Chapter 11 bankruptcy. A successful conclusion was achieved through a sale of the Company which continues to operate today.
